SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

It was early in the month of September, 1942, that the members of our class first began their high - school career. Indeed, we had all looked forward to this day with an attitude of expectancy mingled with uncertainty. For the first few weeks, we timid and frightened individuals walked about hardly daring to breathe freely. When we finally overcame our inferior feelings and mustered up sufficient courage and initiative, this new school life proved to be quite interesting and exciting. Our class was well represented in athletics, the chorus, band, and the various school clubs. Class officers elected were: Robert Middendorf, Don Ketten, and Vera Fisher. Then, after, having completed nine months of diligent hard work and study, we were all happy to enjoy a three months vacation. Thirty-two out of our original enrollment of forty-five returned the following school term to be promoted to the rank of Sophomore. Much to our satisfaction we were no longer the most inexperienced members of the student body. At our first meeting we elected Jim Bollman, Vera Fisher, and Don Ketten as class officers. A great deal of our class' dramatic and vocal ability was displayed in the school operetta, "Gay Havana". Again we were very energitic participants in all school activities. In athletics several of our members received varsity letters in baseball and basketball. With all things considered, we looked upon this year of school as being even more successful and enjoyable than our Freshmen year had been.

The following Fall found most of us back again, this time to take our places as "Jolly Juniors". We all anticipated this year to be bubbling over with work and pleasure if we were to live up to the traditional activities entered into by former junior classes of our school. To start things off we chose William Bauer, Evelyn Lucash, Vera Fisher, and Rose Marie Lanter as class officers. With the introduction of the Student Council, Evelyn Lucash, Vera Fisher, Bernard Heiligenstein, and William Bauer, became our representatives. In early December we presented the play, "Miss Jimmy". Our class rings were also selected this year. Then in the Spring we prepared a Hawaiian banquet in honor of the seniors. In the field of athletics, several of our members again earned varsity letters in basketball and baseball. Time passed quickly and we found ourselves at the end of another school term, with everyone over-anxious to enjoy a period of rest.

This year being our fourth and final year at good old F.C.H.S. we seniors were determined to make it one never to be forgotten. Forunately, we have indeed succeeded in making it such. As our class play we chose a mystery entitled, "The Marlenberg Neclace". Also with the able assistance of our senior talent we succeeded in copping the Cahokia Conference Title. Student Council members included Bernard Heiligenstein, Stanley Agne, Jean Ann Phillips, and Janet Wild. Class officers were William Bauer, Stanley Agne, Rose Marie Lanter, and Vera Fisher. To be sure, we all thoroughly enjoyed the many steps leading to graduation. Some of them included class day, editing the "Spotlight", and having our pictures taken. It is now with thoughts of graduation dominent in our minds that we look back upon these last four years as the happiest ones we have ever experienced. To us they represent years of treasured memories. Indeed, we shall all accredit our school with having taught us a major lesson in how to make our lives happy and successful.

CLASS POEMS

Froggy Bauer is quite a ball player
He is also known as a woman-slayer.
On Saturday night he is Marissa bound
For you should see what that boy found.

Stanley Agne is our story teller
The boys all say he's a regular feller.
But if you ever believe his stories
You'll end up living in morning glories.

Donald Ketten is nicknamed Kat
And you never see him wearing a hat.
Our opponents rated him plenty tough
And they were right--he had the stuff.

Barney is Coach Mulkey's dream
But why not--he's the captain of the team.
He always ready to hold the fort
Be it on diamond or basketball court.

This Evelyn Lucash is an intelligent gal
To Vera she is an inseparable pal.
Except when beckoned by a soldier lad
Then as the feller said-it's just too bad.

Betty Nast helped to type this book
Her dark, brown eyes give ominous looks.
But they soften quickly to a mellow glow
When someone says to Belleville let's go.

Vera Fisher is a glamorous girl
Who wishes her hair would have a natural curl.
Her heart is promised to a boy named Red
Maybe to him someday she'll be wed.

Roger Zipfel is real dependable boy
As well as Jean Ann's pride and joy.
But when he gets that certain glint in his eye
Look out folks--the fur might fly.

Robert Middendorf thinks he's tough
Beware when somebody calls his bluff.
But whoever that brave fellow may be
We'll wait a very long time to see.

Doris Borger is unusually tall
She sleeps in the kitchen with her feet in the hall.
She's on the lookout for someone to woo
But he has to be more than six foot two.

Ida Mae Gantner is a studious lass
We have no doubt but what she'll pass.
Every Saturday she spends with her books
Which from the faculty rates pleasing looks.

Floyd Heilman is always called Toney
His friends know that he's phoney.
He never has a lot to say
Except when he travels Mascoutah way.

Betty Krauss is a little squirt
With soldiers she is known to flirt.
She used to leave early for lunch
But now she waits for the rest of the bunch.

Angelo Leoni is usually busy
Fixing up some old tin lizzie.
He goes to Meng's and toots his horn
And does'nt get home till the early morn.

A boisterous gal is this Janet Wild
She's really a happy carefree child.
She used to like to hunt a frog
But that romance seems to have gone to the dogs.

Jean Ann Phillips is never quiet
If she's present there is usually riot.
When Rogers around he's at a loss
Because in this couple, Jean is the boss.

Audrey Groom is little and quick
And mighty fast with a baseball stick.
With her a new romance began
Which left Bryan in the frying pan.

Areta Kessler is a cute little trick
Who is known as Squeaky's slick chick.
To him so true she'll always be
Although he's far across the sea.

Florence Linss is the quiet type
You never hear her murmur or gripe.
She's just content to stay at home
Because her Mom won't let her roam.

A new-comer to our class is Mamie Lundin
We are proud to add her to our team.
From the state of Utah she came to us
So now she rides to school on the bus.

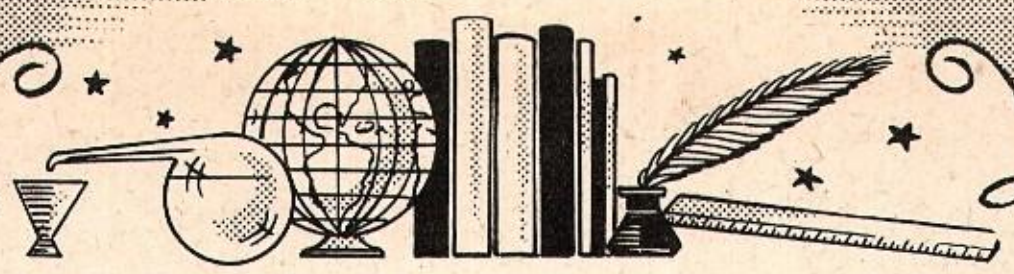
Marjorie Ledbetter left us for a year
To go to school far away from here.
Since coming back she's filled with joy
So she can again be with her Roy.

Margaret Redmond is a willing worker
No one could call her a "shirker".
She's always ready to tackle a job
Cause she can do the work of a mob.

Howard Koesterer always works after school
He doesn't even have time to play pool.
Pete Schoen is his bossom pal
Except when it comes to sharing his gal.

A chubby boy is our Bob Weaver
His nickname is Little Beaver.
He hasn't been with us very long
But nevertheless we feel he belongs.

Rosemarie Lanter always comes home late
The reason is usually a Ford V-8.
The fellow who likes to pay her fare
Is a tall young man named Oscar Skaer.



CLASS PROPHECY

Our class was thoroughly shaken
On the day we had our pictures taken.
We dropped in to see Madam Zaul
Owner of the magic crystal ball.
While at the famed sphere we did gaze
There suddenly within appeared a haze.
At this the class all gasped aloud
And quickly the haze changed to a cloud.
With lightning and thunder it started to whirl
Revealing a vision of each boy and girl.
We see Roger Zipfel as a hair dresser in Munic
Bits of yellow hair cover his tunic.
They come from Evelyn Lucash a student of dancing
With some Maestro of music she is steadily romancing.
We are proud to see in such a high position
Howard Koesterer as a master magician.
Janet Wild has become much meeker
And now holds a job as a noted bookkeeper.
Doris Borger now happily wed
Is seen putting a set of twins to bed.
To our amazement we see Bette Krauss
As a private secretary in the White House.
We drop in on a National League baseball game
Which reveals Barney Heiligenstein a pitcher of great fame.
Betty Jane Nast in Hollywood is seen
She has become a star of stage and screen.
Vera Fisher has made a career of singing
In the Metropolitan Opera her voice may be heard ringing.
It seems that through some quirk of fate
Don Ketten has become governor of New Jork state.
As we peep through a circus tent siding
We see Mamie Lundin on a white steed riding.
Ida Mae Gantner never had her name in lights
But she is a privare maid in Beverly Heights.
To Rosemarie Lanter we offer a toast
For she is editing the Saturday Evening Post.
In the music world Leoni is among famous names
Angelo is giving stiff competition to Harry James.
Florence Linss leads a simple life
To a prosperous farmer she is makes a good wife.
Floyd Heilman discontinued tilling soil
Now he is half owner of Standard Oil.
In a Federal Reserve Bank sits Marjorie Ledbetter
From behind a huge desk she dictates a letter.
Another thing which we rejoiced to see
Was Secretary of Agriculture Stanley Agne.
We see Audrey Groom in Florida on vacation
But her regular job is taking dictation.
Although it took the vision some time to reach her
Margaret Redmond has made a good school teacher.
At a basketball game at Illinois U
We see "Froggy" Bauer dump in a few.
In a ring side seat we see Areta Kessler
For now she's married to the world champion wrestler.
In the Great North Woods there is an abundance of beaver
And also a good trapper named Bob Weaver.
From the vision we all got the hunch
That Jean Phillips will be the old maid of the bunch.
Off in the distance a plane we could see
Robert Middendorf flying P53.
As the vision began to disappear
The whole senior class gave a cheer.
We shall always remember this date
Because we learned of our classmates' fate.

Fall Baseball

The Cahokia Conference baseball season opened on Friday, September 5, when New Baden came to Freeburg to start the first round of games. Many of the Midgets had been playing ball all summer and the future looked bright as the season opened. With Barney Heiligenstein hurling no-hit, no-run, ball for 6 of the 7 innings Freeburg defeated New Baden, 17-2. Pflasterer, Bauer, Borger, and Heiligenstein each had 3 hits to lead the attack on Bann of New Baden. In the second game Freeburg went to Mascoutah and won behind the steady hurling of Eddie Bryan, 5-1. Pflasterer again had 3 hits for the Midgets. O'Fallon came to Freeburg tied for first place, and the Blue & White won this very important game 1-0. Bryan and Barth faced each other in a pitchers duel that finally, ended when Barth threw wildly to third base on an attempted fielder's choice. Lady luck turned her back on Freeburg at New Athens where Schmulbach scored a 1-0 victory, and as O'Fallon began a new winning streak---the two teams were again tied for first place. New Baden was defeated a second time, 16-2 and then Freeburg went to O'Fallon. Barth and Heiligenstein engaged in a hot duel in which Freeburg got 5 hits, O'Fallon only 2, but the game ended 2-1 in favor of O'Fallon. Freeburg defeated Waterloo twice, 3-2 and 4-0, and won from New Athens the second we played them by a score of 2-1. We lost to Mascoutah which gave the championship to O'Fallon. In addition to the ten conference games, the Midgets played Valmeyer 2 games and won both by scores of 4-3 and 6-0. The pitchers for the team were Co--captain Barney Heiligenstein, Eddie Bryan and Jim Calkin. Barney and Eddie also alternating in centerfield. Co-captain Froggy Bauer did the catching while Zipfel, Daab, Hubbard, and Pflasterer manned the infield positions and Pete Schoen, Bob Nicol, Moon Becker, Pete Mueller, Gene Gauch, and Bob Becherer were also on the squad.

Basketball

The Freeburg Community High School Midgets began preparation for a busy 1945--1945 season on Monday, October 15. A schedule of 14 conference games promised to keep the Blue and White cagers moving at a lively pace. An enthusiastic squad of 21 boys answered Coach Austin Mulkey's call for practice and work on fundamentals were started at once. The squad was as follows: Barney Heiligenstein, Don Ketten, William Bauer, Roger Zipfel, Bob Middendorf and Stanley Agne-seniors; Merlin Hubbard, Kent Pflasterer, Harold Daab, and Bob Nicol-juniors; Eddie Bryan, Don Borger, Pete Schoen, and Burl Buchanan--sophs; Jim Calkin, Joe Kasper, Gene Gauch, Bob Becherer, Harold Becker, Bernard Koesterer, and Bob Ledbetter--freshmen. Returning varsity lettermen were: Bauer, Ketten, Heiligenstein, Middendorf, Zipfel, Pflasterer, Hubbard, and Bryan. Barney Heiligenstein, varsity letter winner in his sophomore and junior seasons, was elected captain of the team.

Non-conference Games

Two games with Columbia,Marissa, Sparta, Nashville, Valmeyer, and one with Belleville Township, Belleville Cathedral, and Carterville made up the 13 non--conference games. Some of these teams were strong and therefore played a prominent part in the later development of the Midgets. Of these games our boys won 10---defeating Marissa 68--38 and 49-37; Nashville 50-38 and 42-29; Valmeyer 65-32 and 59-30; Columbia 69-19 and 51-20; Carterville 46--33 and Cathedral 78-50. Freeburg was defeated twice by Sparta, 49-38 and 48-40 and by Belleville Township, 41-40.

Conference Games

On November 16, the Midgets opened their conquest for theCahokia Conference title by going to New Baden and winning, 24-16. The Blue and White played a cautious game and were satisfied at even a narrow victory over the tall, highly-rated Zebras. Lebanon came to our school and we defeated them, 42-28. New Athens gave us a score by holding an 8-4 lead in the first quarter but we came back with 19 points in the second period and went on to win, 39-28.What was rated to be the first real test for the local team toof place on December 14 when the high-flying Dupo Tigers came to Freeburg. However, the game developed into a rout when the Midgets ran away with the contest, 65-46. Bauer,Ketten and Pflasterer lead the offense while Captain Heiligenstein, Bryan and Hubbard outdid themselves on defense. In the final game before the Christmas holidays, Freeburgs hopes for the undefeated conference season went out the window as O'Fallon put on a sensational shooting exhibition to win, 55-41.

After a rest over the holidays, the Midgets again open a drive for ward by walloping the Mascoutah Indians, 71-29. Another smashing victory followed when New Baden was routed by the same score, 71-29. Brillant teamwork, passing and shooting were features of the Midgets attachs. Freeburg next journeyed to Lebanon and again defeated the Greyhounds, 49-30. New Athens came here and was defeated, 49-29. The reserve power of the Blue and White became more and more evident in this game as Heiligenstein, who suffered a severely wrenched ankle and knee in the Marissa game, was unable to play.

Agne, Middendorf, and Zipfel were performing expertly in reserve roles. With Heiligenstein still out of the game, Freeburg battled the stubborn Waterloo team into defeat, 50-39, as the conference race came into the home stretch. At this time Freeburg and O'Fallon each had 10 victories against 1 defeat; while Dupo was still very much in the running with 9-2 record. Each of these 3 teams had to play each otherone more in the final week of conference play. A crowd of 1700 people packed the Dupo gym on February 8 when the Midgets and their followerswent after that eleventh victory. Both teams were cautious and unwilling to open up and the first quarter ended, 3-3. The second quarter saw both teams gamble a little more and our team had built up a small lead by the end of the half, 12-9. In the third quarter Kent Pflasterer exploded 4 field goals, Merlin Hubbard 2 and Eddie Bryan 1 to extend the lead to 29-17 at the end of the third period. The fourth quarter saw the Midgets continue to dominate the play and the final score was, 37-24. Outstanding on defense was Hubbard who held Dupo's high--scoring forward Amos scoreless. Captain Heiligenstein was able to play most of the game and he also stood out on defense. Bryan, Ketten, Bauerand Pflasterer played superb basketball.

The stage was set for the biggest game of the year as Freeburg and O'Fallon remained tied for first place-matching victory with victory. Fans lined up as early as 4 o'clock and stood in a drizzling rain to assure themselves of a seat for this classic contest, and they were not wrong because even before the preliminary contest started at 7 o'clock in the doors were closed and not even standing room remained. The Freeburg boys lost no time, and with Eddie Bryan peppering the Panthers zone defense for four successive baskets, jumped into a 15-8 lead at the end of the first quarter. The Midgets defense was specially planned to stop the sensational Carl Schneider, who had scored 33 points in the previous meeting of the two teams, and he was so entirely stymied in his efforts to get away from Heiligenstein, and later in the game, Hubbard that he became too aggressive and left the game on fouls in the third quarter. Schneider was held to but 5 points-his lowest of this season that had given him a 22 point per game average. The final score ended, Freeburg 55 and O'Fallon 34 and while a game with Mascoutah remained on the schedule, this victory actually decided the race and gave the Midgets their second Cahokia Conference Championship in four years. Mascoutah came to Freeburg and were snowed under in a 85-28 attack.

District Tournament

In the first round of play at the New Athens Tournament, Freeburg defeated Valmeyer, 54-19. The Cahokia Conference Champs stacked up a 10-1 lead in the first quarter on three deuces and a one-pointer by Bauer, a field basket by Capt. Barney Heiligenstein, and an ace by Don Ketten. At half time the count was 18-4. Bauer having added four fielders; Ketten three, and Heiligenstein, one, and Kent Pflasterer and Merlin Hubbard a free pitch apiece. Teamwork was perfect and their was no promiscuous shooting. The Midgets constantly fed the man under the basket. Freeburg reserves entered the game with the score 36-7 in the third period, but the regulars were back again for most of the final quarter.

Freeburg met and defeated New Baden in the semifinals, 57-41. Aiming their knockout blow early, Freeburg Midget's poured 20 points through the hoop in a free--scoring first quarter for a nine-point lead. By half-time, with Bill Bauer hitting consistently and his teammates giving him a total of 48 in two tournament games. Don Ketten caged 13 and Kent Pflasterer and Eddie Bryan, nine each.

In the finals of the tournament Freeburg met New Athens who had advanced by defeating Okawville and Marissa. Characteristic of their drive all through district play, the Midgets sped into an early lead, unleashed their power to quickly bury their opponents, and then cruised to a 53-25 triumph over the New Athens Yellow Jackets. The Midgets salted away the triumph in the opening quarter by plunging a dozen through the hoop, while New Athens counted only a field basket. Then as if that were not enough, Mulkey's charges continues their onslaught to lead 28-9 at the half. Bill(Froggy) Bauer, 5-foot, 9-inch senior forward, increased his tournament point total to 66 by looping seven field baskets and four free throws, a total of 18 tallies, and again all of the Midgets were where they should have been and were passing the ball where it would do the most good. Don(Kat) Ketten, 6-foot senior forward, and Capt. Barney Heiligenstein, 5-foot, 11-inch senior guard, totaled 10 points apiece, and Kent(Kenny) Pflasterer, 5-foot, 8 inch junior guard, contributed eight. To enter the championship game Freeburg mauled Valmeyer, 54-19, in the opening round and whipped New Baden 57-41, in the semifinals. Thus the Midgets piled up a total of 184 points, as compared to 85 for their three tournament foes. The championship was the second of the year for Coach Mulkey and his crew. They also won the title in the Cahokia Conference, in which they won the title in the Cahokia Conference, in which they won 13 games while losing only one.

Regional Tournament

A typical Freeburg-Dupo furnished the major thrills in the first round of the Belleville Regional Tournament. Ahead, 25-15, at the half, the Midgets appeared headed for the first walk-awayof the tourney, but Dupo fought its way into the lead near the end of regulation time. Merlin Hubbard's field goal from the side of the basket with 10 seconds to go tied the score for the Midgets after it seemed the favorites were doomed to defeat. A field goal had put the Tigers in the lead and with only 40 seconds left to play, a Freeburg foul gave Dupo the ball out of bounds by choice. The Midgets stole the ball on the toss-in and after three lightning passes it zoomed into the hands of Hubbard. Leaping high, he pushed it with his right palm, and it glided through the hoop to tie the count. In the overtime period Hubbard shoved Freeburg in front with a free throw and Eddie Bryan followed with another. The Midgets froze the ball successfully and finally Kent Pflasterer dribbled in from a clinching setup with 20 seconds remaining. Hubbard, who alternated in the lineup throughout the duel tallied only three points but they were lulus for the Midgets. His lone field basket snatched the game out of the fire and his only free shot put his team on top.

Freeburg was eliminated by Belleville in the semifinals, 42--36. The Midgets gave the Maroons a torrid struggle until the last two minutes of the third quarter when Scott's charges started pulling away. The Blue and White cagers were unable to overcome the 18 point drive of the third quarter after they had enjoyed a 15-6 lead at one time in the second quarter.

The regional tournament ended the regular varsity basketball season. The Midgets completed a 52 game schedule with 27 victories and only 5 defeats. The squad was honored at dinners and individual"feeds" but the crowing event was the Athletic banquet on April 16. Glenn Martin, coach at Southern Normal University, was the principal speaker. Varsity letters were awarded to the following boys: Captain Barney Heiligenstein, William Bauer, Don Ketten, Roger Zipfel, Stanley Agne, Bob Middendorf, Kent Pflasterer, Merlin Hubbard, Harold Daab, and Eddie Bryan. Minor letters were presented to Pete Schoen, Donald Borger, Joseph Kasper,Bob Nicol, Harold Becker,Bob Becherer,Bernard Koesterer, Burl Buchanan, Jim Calkin, and Gene Gauch.

Sparta-Junior Tourament

Immediately after the regional tournament at Belleville, the Midgets' junior team, composed entirely of freshmen and sophomores, began to prepare for the 27th annual Sparta Junior Tournament. Freeburg had won the meet last year and the boys were particularly anxious to annex a second leg toward permanent possession of the traveling trophy.

Freeburg's first foe was Nashville and superb playing by Bryan, Calkin, Borger, Schoen, and Kasper brought home a victory, 42-33. In the second round,the Blue & White faced a very highly-rated Belleville Township team and trounced them soundly, 42-28. In the semi-finals, our team ran up against a good Pinckneyville team and again came out victorious, 32-23. The Sparta Bulldogs had advanced to the finals in the other bracket and they were strong favorites to win the championship. However, the determination of the junior Midgets was not to be denied, and as a result, Sparta was thoroughly and completely outplayed and outsmarted. The final score was 42-29 with the winners holding a lead all the way. Eddie Bryan and Jim Calkin were offensive and defensive giants that simply controlled things almost all the time. Pete Schoen, Buck Kasper, Don Borger, and Bob Becherer played a steady calm type of basketball that was deadly to every opponent. So Freeburg won the Sparta Junior Tournament for the second year in a row.

Spring Baseball

On March 18, spring baseball practice officially began. An ambitious schedule of 13 games had been arranged which promised to offer some very stiff competion. As our book goes to press we have played only 4 games. We opened the season on April 4 when O'Fallon, conference champions of last fall,came here. With Heiligenstein and Bryan dividing the pitching duties, we hammered our opponents, 13-4. Bryan and Hubbard hit home runs and the first 6 batters is the Freeburg lineup-Pflasterer, Hubbard, Bauer,Bryan, Borger,and Heiligenstein gathered at least 2 hits apiece. On April 9, we went to Belleville for a game with the Township High Maroons. Even though he was wild at times,Heiligenstein was master with men on base and Freeburg was victorious,6-5. A freshman-sophomore game with Belleville Township was played on April 10 and Eddie Bryan entered "hall of fame" by hurling a no-hit, no-run game. The junior Midgets won the game, 8-0. In the final game before the annual goes to press, we defeated Highland on our diamond, 7-0. Barney Heiligenstein continued his fine pitching by allowing only 5 hits while fanning 10. Don Borger hit a single, double, and triple for the home team.

The remaining games on our schedule are:

April 16	at Belleville Cathedral
April 19	Dupo at Freeburg
April 22	at Dupo
April 23	Collinsville at Freeburg
April 26	at O'Fallon
April 30	Belleville Township at Freeburg
May 3	at Mascoutah
May 8	at Collinsville
May 10	Ashley at Freeburg

May 27-31	State Tournament

Sport is winning, if win you can
And keep to the sportsman's code.
Sport is beating the other man,
But giving him half the road;
Being content with an even break;
Scorning the trickster's art.
Sport is the game for the game's own sake,
And the love of a fighting heart.
